

Choose

It's all or nothing the ball's in your court
It's me or your gods, the time is now short.
Rich blessings come with my lordship divine
Yet, my love is free it won't cost you a dime.

You've been bound by a trap set precisely for you
You're wrapped in the ribbons you thought were truth.
There's always hope at the end of your strength
For nothing's impossible when you give it to me.

Choose what you will, choose who will lead
This cannot be settled by you without me.
You don't have the power to change this big mess,
But I'll be your guide out of every distress.

Wherever you turn there's a price to pay
From where came the heartache you feel today
From the fruit of your lordship or of mine?
Don't make this mistake another time.

You cannot control this, I must be Lord
I am fair and kind, yet true to my word.
I love you more than the loves you have known.
Lay your sins and cares at the foot of my throne.

Walk in my wisdom and follow my ways
Though darkness surrounds I'll light the way
I the mighty God love you perfectly
I hold you tight as the truth sets you free.
